Vermont State FFA Association State FFA Officer Contract

The State FFA Officer team is required to perform a multitude of tasks at a very rigorous pace. It is essential that anyone pursuing an interest in State Office be aware of the responsibilities and the necessary qualifications required to be a state officer. Please read the following carefully and sign indicating that you have read and accept. (A list of required activities is included for you to see a typical schedule).

If elected to state office I will:

1. Be totally dedicated and committed to the total program of agricultural education and FFA.
2. Be willing to commit the entire year and the time necessary to serve as a state FFA officer and activities.
3. Be willing and able to travel within and outside the state as required to complete officer duties (FFA activities in the calendar must take priority over sports and other events).
4. Become thoroughly knowledgeable of agriculture and agricultural education and the FFA. Keep myself up to date on current events.
5. Always work untiringly through preparation and practice to develop myself into an effective public speaker and project a desirable image of FFA
6. Correspond regularly and in a timely manner write all letters, thank you notes, reports and other correspondence, which are necessary.
7. Work constantly to improve my ability to carry on meaningful and enjoyable conversations with individuals of all ages and walks of life.

8. Perform self-evaluations on myself and accept and search out constructive criticism and evaluation of my total performance, in order to make me a stronger individual. Evaluate constantly my personality and attitudes making every effort to improve myself.
9. Maintain and protect my health.
10. Attend all state officer meetings
11. Attend all events which are deemed necessary, by the State FFA Executive Director to fulfill the duties of my office (i.e, Base Camp, NE State Officer Training, Big E, VT Foundation meetings, Leadership Camp, Industry tours, etc.)
12. Work with other state officers to prepare and present at chapter visits.
13. Memorize my parts of the ceremonies as required each year. This could include: Honorary Degree, State Degree and Installation of Officers)

I have read and understand the officer responsibilities. I realize that serving as a state officer is a commitment, which requires not only some financial resources but a large investment in time and effort. I will carry out the responsibilities and duties of the office if I am elected in accordance with the above statements. Any infractions will be dealt with as described in the State FFA Officer Attendance and Discipline Policy.
